Women Of The Moose Report Activities Of Recent Sessions

The new home of Mrs. Rosie Shepherd on Beech avenue was the setting for the monthly pot luck and exchange of Moose Pal gifts Monday evening.

At this meeting, marked by an unusually large attendance, the past year's Moose Pal names were revealed and new ones drawn.

Present at the district Friendship breakfast was Senior Regent Ila Mae Ambach and Co-workers Lottie Phillips and Elsie Smith, according to report read at the meeting.

Highlight of the month's activities was the initiation of a class of 15 candidates at the last regular meeting.

Honoring their senior regent chapter members that evening presented her with a gift of two dozen red roses.

Introduction of two new members by their sponsors and the presentation of a gift to Esther Venable for procuring the largest number of new members, were features of the session.

Out-of-town activities for chapter members included their recent attendance at installation of officers at Huntington Park Chapter.

Dorothy Smith, publicity chairman.

Members of the staff of Torrance Memorial Hospital who have been vacationing include: Mrs. Viola Anderson, recently returned from two weeks vacation; Miss Bernice Giddings, who reports an enjoyable visit at San Joaquin Valley; Mrs. Minnie Brooks, who reports an enjoyable visit with her son Comar Brooks, head of Southwestern Diagnostic laboratory at Santa Fe, N. M. She was accompanied by Mrs. John F. Burrows, of Hollywood and Mrs. Laura Bowly, of Washington, D. C. The ladies motored home via Grand Canyon.

Miss Agnes Thompson left last week for her former home in Elko, Nev., where she will spend two weeks.

Miss Marguerite Summers, surgical superintendent, is on two weeks vacation with friends and relatives in Colorado.

Miss Patricia Sullivan, surgical nurse, last week returned by plane from four weeks vacation in Minneapolis and other Minnesota cities.

Brownies Fly Up to G. S. Troop 184; Day Camp Planned

A Court of Awards and Fly-Up ceremony marked the recent meeting of Girl Scout Troop 184 and Brownie Troop 406, held in the sponsoring First Christian Church.

Brownies participating were Lenore Sexton, Gaye Wilson, Sharon Kirks and Lela Wieman, all of whom flew up to Girl Scout Troop 184.

With the date for the opening of Brownie Day Camp set for June 30, all Brownies or non-Brownies who are not registered for camp and who wish to attend are invited to call Mrs. Mavis Cook at Torrance 1005 or Mrs. Virginia Reid at 801-J.

Rotarians Set 'Demotion' Dinner Dance for Tonight

The traditional "demotion" dinner dance of Torrance Rotary Club will be held this evening at Palos Verdes Country Club. Retiring President James L. Lynch is booked to play the unwilling but hilarious role in a comedy stunt, the plot of which has not been disclosed by the committee in charge.

Serious part of the brief program will be the induction of President-elect George Johnson and other club officers who will take office July 1.

186th Street PTA Receives Award at Biltmore Meet

At a post convention luncheon held in Biltmore Hotel 186th Street PTA was presented a Certificate of Award in recognition for outstanding achievement in service to children of the community.

Guests of honor at the meeting were State PTA Congress officers and chairmen residing within Tenth District and Tenth District executive board members.

Luncheon table favors were diminutive potted cactus plants provided by Mrs. E. J. Schag, district art chairman.

Representing 186th St. PTA at the luncheon were Mrs. James A. Gauley, new president and Mrs. Leo Wagner, past president.

Mrs. Joseph Hook, outgoing District president, was presented with a beautiful purse containing a check for the outstanding Child Welfare work she has done during her two years as president of Tenth District.

The 186th St. PTA entered the Newslette contest held Tuesday, June 15. For the first time since organization 186th Street PTA has had a Newslette. At the last meeting in June it was named "The Span," signifying bridging school and home.

Attending the contest from 186th Street were Mesdames James A. Gauley, president; Harold W. Armstrong, press chairman; D. W. TenEyck, Newslette chairman for next year.

Legion Auxiliary To Name Delegate At Social Meeting

American Legion Auxiliary of Bows S. Crossland Post No. 170 has scheduled a social meeting for Monday evening, June 28 in St. Andrew's Guild Hall.

Hostesses for the evening are Margaret Fordice and Merle Youngken.

Preceding the social hour a special business meeting has been called to elect a delegate to the forthcoming convention in San Francisco.

David Rhone Hosts Gala Patio Party On Tenth Birthday

David Rhone, 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rhone, of 1019 Beech avenue, celebrated his birthday with a delightful patio party Sunday at the family home.

Contests and relays with prizes for winners were highly entertaining for David and his guests, who were: Ronald Dickenson, Gary Harkinson, Larry Stamper, Richard Freeman, Richard Malone, Michael Ward, Jack Davis, Kenneth Wheat, Paul Schumert and David Keeley.

Also present were David's great aunts, Miss Clara Bosbyshell, of Alhambra and Mrs. Helen Warner, of Washington, D. C., weekend guests at the Rhone home and his uncle, Leonard Rhone and son Jimmy, 6, of Vista.

Following games and the unwrapping of many attractive and useful gifts the boys and their elders enjoyed birthday cake and ice cream. Colorfully wrapped packages of candy were party favors.

Julie Rhone assisted her mother with party arrangements.

WEEKEND GUESTS
Mr. and Mrs. Don Wolf, of 1614 W. 216th street, are entertaining as their weekend guests Mr. and Mrs. Roy Fair, of Oklahoma City.

TO VISALIA
Mrs. John Grimm, mother of Mr. Don Wolf, of this city, left Tuesday for her new home in Visalia. Mrs. Grimm had been active in club and church work during her residence here.
